Kintetsu International, the Official Major League Baseball Travel Partner, Announces Last Minute Tour to the MLB Opening Series in Tokyo Japan March 22-27, 2008!

Package Includes: Tickets to three Boston Red Sox Games, including one exhibition game vs. the Yomiuri Giants and two regular season games vs. the Oakland Athletics – all at the famous Tokyo Dome!

New York, NY, February 29, 2008 ...If you've always wanted to see baseball at its finest in Japan, now is your chance! Kintetsu International, ranked among the top 30 travel agencies in the United States by Travel Weekly magazine and the Official travel partner of the MLB, has just announced a fabulous last minute opportunity to see the Boston Red Sox square off against the Yomiuri Giants and the Oakland A's at the Tokyo Dome, March 22-27!

The 6-day package includes:

- Private round-trip chartered airfare on Japan Airlines 747-400 aircraft from Boston to Tokyo accompanied in-flight by select Red Sox executives,
- Four nights hotel accommodations at the luxurious New Otani Tokyo, the same hotel where the Red Sox players, coaches and executives are staying,
- Close-up lower level tickets to three games at the Tokyo Dome: one exhibition game vs. the Yomiuri Giants and two regular season games against the Oakland Athletics as part of MLB's 2008 opening series,
- Access to the private off-day Red Sox workout on March 24,
- A private reception with select Red Sox players and uniformed personnel (autographs, Q&A, and food and beverages provided) on Wednesday, March 26,
- Chartered bus ground transportation to and from all events,
- Three organized sight-seeing opportunities around Japan (see: www.japanforyou.com)
- Premium Red Sox and Opening Series merchandise,
- Commemorative photos and digital archive CD

Starting price for this whole package with optional sightseeing tours is just $4,999!
